

RECLAIMED FLOORING

This is an opportunity to truly own a piece of history. Salvaged from the attics of beautiful historic homes, our reclaimed flooring is a masterpiece of what 200 years of aging can produce in a floor. As with Weatherboard flooring we leave the original surface untouched. Each floor has a story of its own.

RESAWN CHESTNUT

This commercially extinct flooring is known for its unique grain pattern and warm color. Popularly known as “wormy chestnut”, the blight of the late 1800’s has given our chestnut flooring beautiful character along with tiny “worm” markings. Anyone viewing your chestnut flooring will be certain that you own a piece of history!
